In Memoriam

Dr. Loy Norrix

Although few Centralites had direct personal contact with our late Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Loy Norrix, all of us felt his guiding presence and friendly hand upon our lives. As well as directing our growing school system for the past twenty-one years, and supporting and contributing to all new ideas in the building of education, he was an invaluable friend to all, fellow-educators and students alike.

Mr. John Clementz

Mr. John Clementz, for 33 years a teacher at Central, died on April 27 following a stroke. For ten years he was head of the social science department, and he held numerous positions of trust in the community and in professional organizations.

Mr. Clementz was a master teacher in every sense of the word. His friendly counsel and his deep interest in the progress and welfare of his students are now a legacy to hundreds of Centralites.

Foreword

Here is the 1958 DELPHIAN. It records the events and activities of the year, it reflects the hopes and aspirations of the students, and it mirrors the past year for all who will gaze at these pages.

The year did have its highlights: exciting athletic events, "dreamy" proms, the fabulous follies and "brigadoon." It also had many a "routine" moment which becomes the stuff from which memories are made in later years. All these are recorded in your yearbook. May you enjoy looking at it as much as the staff has enjoyed preparing it for you.

Dedication

Chou Choon Ja

Our foster daughter, Choi Choon Ja, is now a smiling young Korean girl of thirteen. She is very talented artistically and enjoys school, especially math. Because her mother is often ill and cannot work, Choon Ja and her sisters depend on us for a great deal. Their father was lost in the Korean war.

We have been supporting Choi Choon Ja for nearly four years now, sending her each month such things as cheese, jeans, pencils, and money. She writes to us about her studies and recreation, teaching us a good bit about the customs of her country.

Chung Tae Sun

Our foster son, Chung Tae Sun, has belonged to us for only a year. He is also Korean and lives near Pusan. His older brother is in the army now, and Tae Sun himself is a fifth-grader. In his frequent letters to us he describes the countryside and the nature of Korea in beautiful language.

Each month we send the boy supplies of food and clothing, as well as eight dollars for school books, et cetera. In return we receive colored pictures of people and their surroundings.

To you, our children, we affectionately dedicate this book.

ADMINISTRATION

With lasting patience, we have been skillfully guided through the important years of high school. Friendly counseling has helped us in our growth, wise suggestions given us by the administrative heads of the school and by the members of the faculty will stay with us and will make our lives more enjoyable.

1958 Band Follies

MASTER OF CEREMONIES, John Kengis

The '58 Follies were acclaimed as the best ever by all. Centering around the theme "On with the Show," the Follies were patterned after the Ziegfeld Follies. Many excellent acts were featured throughout the show. The chorus line offered new interest with the addition of a boys' chorus line. Completely new and unexpected was their Carioca dance. The Follies were directed by Jerome Mandl and Howard Chenery.

"Paddlin' Maddlin Home," Nicki LaVerne (or is it Vicki?), Sharon Cole, Jim Duncan, Sandra Miller, Vicki LaVerne (or is it Nicki?).

THE TONES, Marv Thompson, Gerald Sims, Daniel Johnson, Charlie Franks.

Dramatics

The 1957-58 play season opened on November 22, with the production of "Out of the Frying Pan", a farce -- comedy by Francis Swann. The play, directed by Mr. Howard Chenery, included the following cast: Jim Kingsbury, Rick Higdon, Jean Knight, John Kengis, Barbara Bergmann, Lonnie Lennon, Lynn Peterson, Joyce

Hiatt, Michael Skinner, Jim Royle, William Goggin, and Timothy Shank. The scene of the play was the living room of a brownstone front apartment in New York. Committees for the play included: Elizabeth Reverski, prompter; Ann Shorter, costumes; Charlene Falvey and Martha Werme, properties.

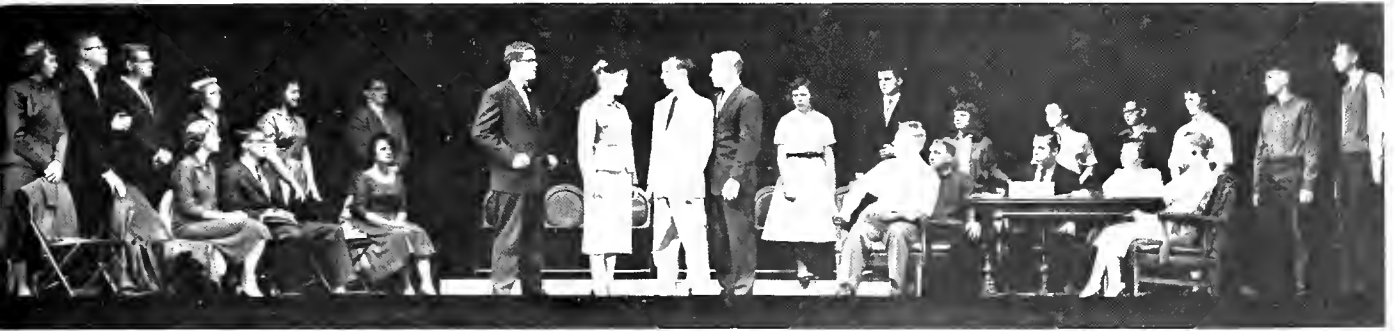

Lynne Peterson, Jim Kingsbury, Lonnie Lennon, and Mike Skinner.

Jim Kingsbury, Jim Royle, and Rick Higdon.

Dramatics

The second play of the year, "The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners", was presented March 28 and 29. The play by Kristin Sergel was adapted from the television show by Reginald Rose. It was the only show ever to be repeated on Studio One because of popular request. The play was unusual in that it began in the audience and used very little scenery. The cast included: John Homer, Marcia Wagner, Michael Skinner, Elizabeth Reverski, William Diller, Barbara Bergmann, Paul Acosta, Lynn Peterson, Gordon Kinch, Joyce Hiatt, Jim Albert, Ruth Ann DeVos, Mary Wigton, Duane Ritsema, John Kengis, Robert Smith, Sharon Comstock, Barbara Geyer, Rosemary Higgins, Carol Kline, Maurice Warner, Sandra Stock, Frances Maus, Allan Lanphear, Richard Resh, and Jim Kingsbury. Members of the production committees were: Martha Werme, prompter; Martha Werme, Julie Rich and Shirley Dunn, properties; Jim Kingsbury, publicity; Joeline Dipple and Sharon Early, make-up.

FOOTBALL HOMECOMING

Football royalty for the 1957 Homecoming were: Barb Bielefeld, queen; and Bill Weirick, king; Pat Skivington, Nancy England, Joel Johnson and Jim Culver. The festivities including crowning, parade, and dance were planned by the Pep Club and K-Club under the direction of co-chairman Joeline Dipple and Bill Smith.

Football Homecoming royalty: Joel Johnson, Nancy England, Bill Weirick, king; Barb Bielefeld, Queen; Jim Culver, and Pat Skivington.

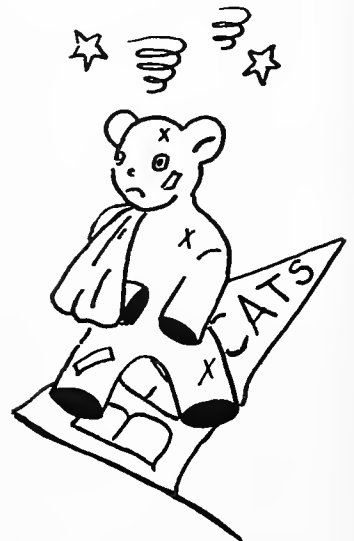

The Queen and her court rode in style atop the Pep Club float, "Rainbow." The continuous rain of the week before caused a postponement of the parade but did not dampen the spirits of the participants when the parade was finally held the night of the game.

One of the more than twenty floats that joined the parade was "Stardust" entered by the Y-Teens Club.

BASKETBALL HOMECOMING

Queen Pat

This year's basketball homecoming game was played against Battle Creek on Thursday, February 13. The King, Queen and court were presented at half-time. They were: Queen, Pat Skivington; King, Joel Johnson; and the court consisted of Becky Crockett, Bonnie Sutton, Gus Berzins and Jack Skivington. The dance, "Cupid's Coronation" was held on Friday. Linda Dickson was general chairman with the following committees: Pat Skivington and Larry Bassett, Dance; Marg Skivington, Chaperones; Lonnie Lennon, Decorations; Mary Sue Carpenter, Gifts and Flowers; Ann Kavender, Band; Dick Smith, Publicity; Joy Grossnickle, Refreshments; and Mary Sue Bucher and Dick Rossio, Crowning.

Due to lack of experience and bench strength, the 1957 Maroon Giants gridiron season was a disappointing one to all concerned. However, 1958 should be a big year football-wise since 17 lettermen will be returning to do battle on the turf next year. Although we did lose every ball game, our boys showed the stuff that they were made of by continuing good sportsmanship throughout the entire campaign.

Although a losing season was the general outcome, Coach Pedler's inexperienced team of harriers showed a great deal of spirit and talent in their second place upset at the regionals. As a result of this victory C. H. S. was entered at the state meet.

Coach Pedler is looking forward to next season with much anticipation, mainly because he is losing only two top runners as seniors.

Although the Maroon basketball season began with a losing trend, the CHS cagers finally rallied and came forth with a very satisfying climax.

Perhaps the greatest upset of the season came with Central's District title victory over Lansing Sexton. Sexton was ahead 11 points at the half, but after the final moments had run out, the score board read Central 52, Lansing 44.

The real thriller of the year was the first round of play in the district tourney. With three minutes left to play, Grand Rapids Creston was ahead by a comfortable 7 points. Then Coach Bob Quiring put a new figure on the floor — Dick Rossio. The team gained strength and rallied to win in the overtime by a score of 57-52.

The best game of the season, as far as real playing ability is concerned, came in the first round of the Regional. Coach Quiring's use of "unorthodox" style thoroughly confused the Benton Harbor Tigers, who were rated first in the state.

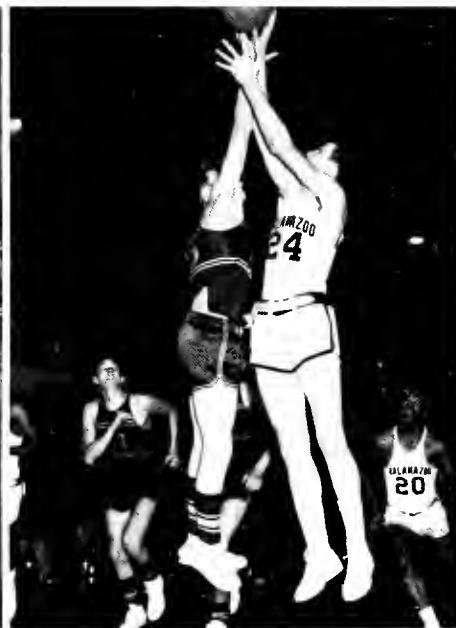

By the end of the first half, CHS was lagging by some 15 points. In the second half, however, Central completely outplayed the Tigers, but could not quite overcome the first half deficit. Gus Berzins dropped in 16 points for Central's high point man. Dick Rossio scored 10 points while sophomore Bob Gugler bounded off the back boards and pulled many a ball out of the hands of Benton Harbor's star center Chet Walker. The Tigers did take the game; however, with a score of 60-48.

Where is it?

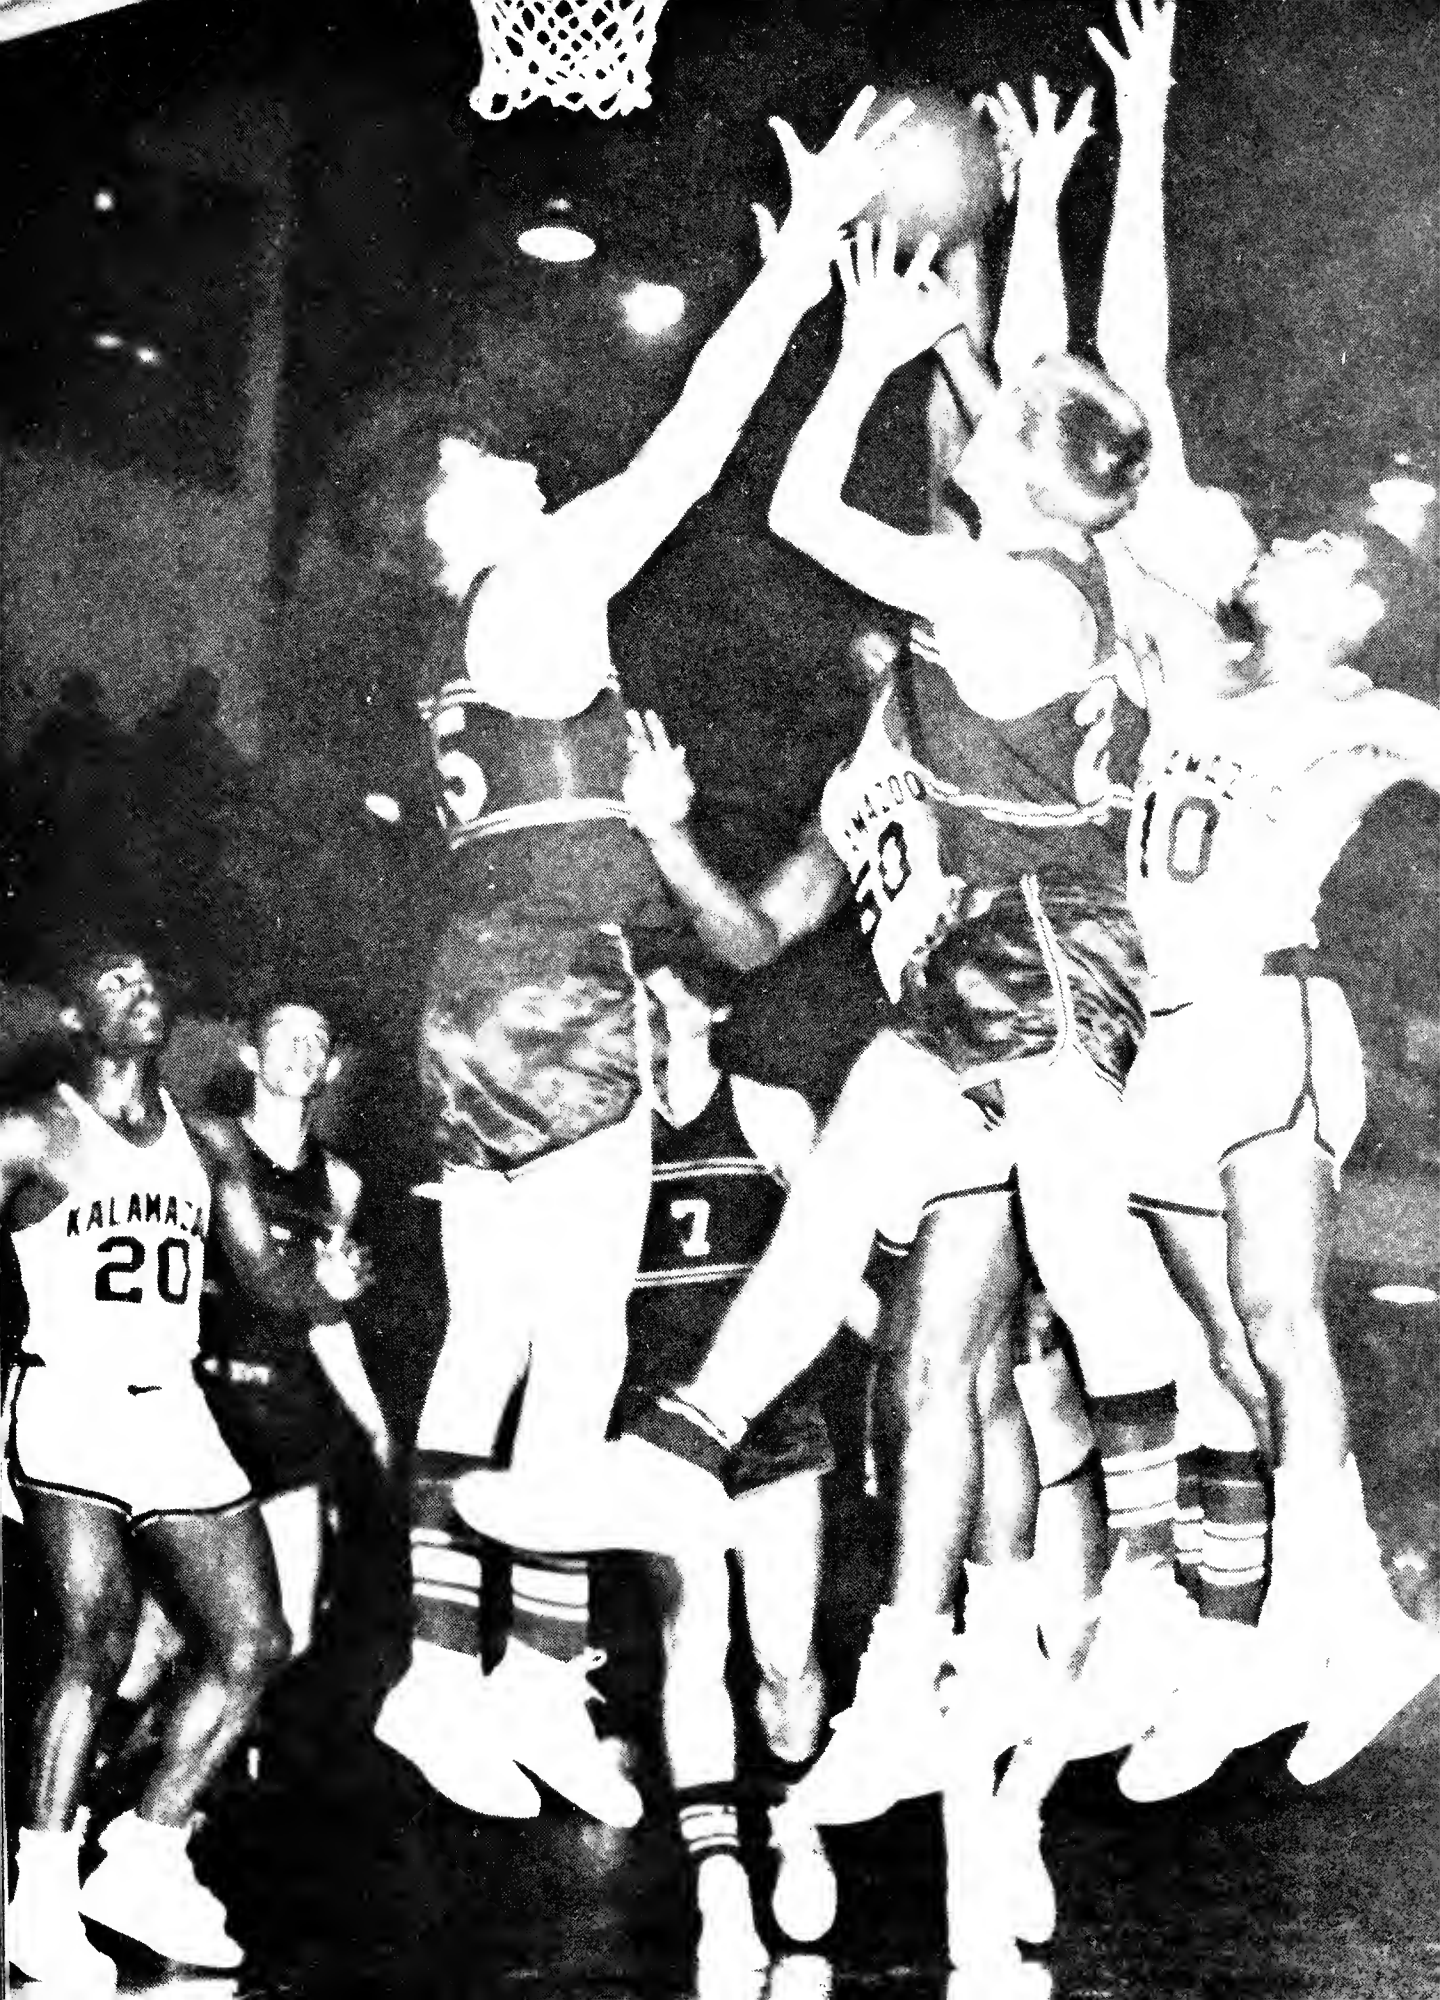

Hold that sneeze!

A tense moment!

It's all yours, Joel.

Central's tankers, coached by Chris Mengel and Don Drake, had a disappointing season, with one win and seven losses. Their win came over an improving Grand Haven team. The record is deceiving since the Six-A is the toughest league in the state, if not in the nation. Battle Creek and Ann Arbor took 1, 2 respectively in the state meet, and Michigan is known to be the best swimming state in the nation.

The hopes for the future are improving, with sprinter Dave Boehlke, versatile Jerry Green, Bruce Corstange, Tom Dickinson and Tom Schumaker. Freshman Tom Huff also shows great promise as a butterflyer.

Coach Bill Nelson's team of wrestlers proved this season that Kalamazoo Central was no push over in that sport. Although they did not prove victor in any 6-A meets, they came close enough to give their opponents quite a thrill. An example of this was the B.C. meet when Kalamazoo suffered a heartbreaking loss with a score of 26-24.

The team placed third in the regionals and fourteenth in the state.

Coach Nelson has high hopes for next year; mainly because he is losing very few wrestlers as seniors.

To open the 1958 season, the CHS squad defeated Holland by the score of 8 to 4. Central scored 8 runs on 11 hits and 3 errors. Holland's 4 runs were the result of 3 hits and 2 miscues.

As we go to press, Central is about to open its title defense in the 6-A League against Battle Creek Central. Although Central has only two returning regulars, it has four other lettermen and the potential to take the third flag in a row.

Our Captains

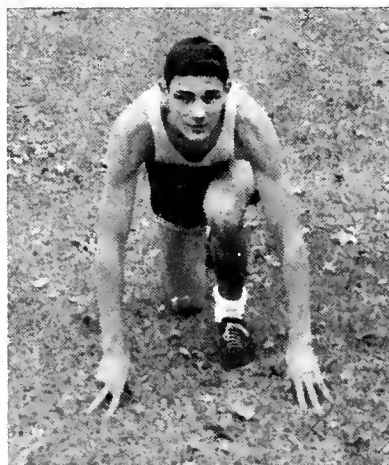

Joel Johnson, our 1958 Basketball Captain who was the only returning letterman, served as the center of enthusiasm for the entire team of cagers.

Tom Beach, tennis captain, is our leading man in the singles.

Dave Laurin and Phil Meeth, co-captains of the wrestling team, served as the top C.H.S. contenders.

Acting baseball captain, Walter Waltz, acts as the varsity short stop and is among the top hitters on the team.

Cross Country Captain Dick Smith led the C.H.S. harriers as top man on the squad this season.

The football squad and the golf squad do not choose captains for the entire year.

The baseball team elects their captain at the end of the season; however Walter Waltz has been the acting captain.

Tom Vandersalm and Steve Halleck, who were not pictured, were swimming co-captains. Both were leading swimmers with previous letters in the sport.

The most ardent springs sports fan in the male division was Jack Kubizna. He attended a golf match, a tennis match, a baseball game and a track meet all in one day.

High honors in the female division went to Pat Skivington who has attended, more than once, as many as three spring sports events in one day,
